

Dance Factory's January Newsletter

As our January classes begin, it is great to be back to the basics. Instructors will be focusing on teaching new techniques and polishing the old. This is also a great time to add any additional classes if so desired; jazz, hip hop, ballet. Remember, it will be VERY difficult to change classes if your costume has been ordered. If you have had an unexpected schedule change and/or see it necessary to change classes, please contact the office immediately.

Spring Recital: June 12th (dress rehearsal) 13th, 14th, 15th

If you are new to the Dance Factory you will want to put these dates on your calendar for our spring recital. This event is not required of our students so if you are not interested in participating please contact your instructor and the office so you are not billed for a costume and/or recital fee. Those dancers who only take classes once a week will only perform on one of the above listed dates.

Spring Recital Costumes

Our first shipment of costumes was ordered over winter break. If you did not pay for your costume IN FULL at that time, it was not ordered. If you have changed your mind and desire to be in the recital, put off your costume payment until after the new year and/or if you are new to the Dance Factory and wish to participate in the spring recital, please make your payment of $60.00 PER CLASS by Feb 1st. This will be the last shipment of costumes to be ordered. Costumes will not be ordered unless paid for in full.
